

John F. Kenney, Jr., Donald Trump and Joe Biden

Before his “death,” John F. Kennedy, Jr., a practicing attorney in New York, and only heir to the late president, his namesake, had made plans to run for the Democratic senate seat also sought by Hillary Clinton. Was it a coincidence that young Kennedy’s sudden death helped to propel Clinton into that very seat? Or was John-John, his childhood nickname, too aware of the fate planned to befall him? After all, three attempts had been made to kidnap the only male heir to the assassinated president, all three attempts unsuccessful. John Jr. was a wise young man, and his foremost desire in life, at this time, was to find those responsible for killing his father. "I will expose my father's killers no matter who they are -even if I have to bring down the government."

John-John had a plan. He also had a great friend, whom he trusted, by the name of... Donald Trump. The two respected one another. Their friendship became a focus on the future and a plan which, some believe, is still in the works. While this theory is yet to be seen, there is a mysterious photo taken in Jfk’s office for his magazine, “George.” A photo that reveals a prominent date in the future, it’s significance, both then, and, now, unclear. One thing is very clear, and clearly no mystery at all, and that is the early support Jfk gave to his friend’s flirtation with the presidency.

John Jr. was once asked if he would consider a run for president. He was attending a party given at Mar-a-lago at the time, the Florida estate of Donald Trump. John-John declined the offer, saying: “I think you should be asking those questions of Donald,” (Kennedy said, according to Kennedy's former business partner, Michael Berman. ) 'He'd clearly have the most extravagant winter White House.'

I wonder if JFK Jr. ever imagined that many of their popular, wealthy, celebrity friends, including politicians whom Trump also counted among his good friends, and many of whom had gone to him to borrow funds, i.e. Al Sharpton and Chuck Schumer, would turn on the Donald the very minute he announced that he would run. And so they did; turn. Donald Trump, the most popular celebrity, the most invited celebrity guest of the eighties and nineties talk shows and celebrity parties, was suddenly “despised” by those who had long supported him and prowled about for his company.

Donald Trump always manifested an air of egotism that both drew people to him and to question his sincerity. He was, after all, a powerful businessman who built a fortune-yielding empire from a business his father had begun years earlier and left to his son. No one can question Donald Trump's business sense for he knew well how to make money, how and where to spend it, and how to make it continue to multiply. Many were, and are, seemingly jealous of his success and, since, have attempted out of great desperation to destroy the man, his business, and his presidency. From day one, every day of President Donald J. Trump's presidential life has been spent fending off bullies, demons, communists, socialists, and the lawless and Godless. Every day! The strength he has shown in standing up to all of it is admirable. While Donald Trump may not be the most articulate president who has ever served, his heart is in the right place and his ideas are, simply; to thwart the rise of socialist and communist rule in these United States. He also believes in God and works to please Him as well as every American citizen. We have an anti-abortion, anti-gay marriage, anti-child abuse, anti-human trafficking, anti-gang, anti-lawlessness president, all of the former speaking from God. If you are fortunate enough to catch the lectures of Rabbi Jonathan Cahn, he details prophecies from the Bible which may confirm that God is using Donald Trump, a sinner as we all are, to carry out His work. Cahn diligently explains why and how this is possible, if not probable.

John Kennedy, in his own sincere way, did push Trump's political aspirations through his magazine “George,” a controversial, and prophetic, view of the world of politics, having interviewed Trump briefly for an article dealing with the latter's “flirtation” in the political arena.

Four years of successful endeavors to achieve each goal promised for the American people, President Donald Trump has kept almost every promise thus far, excepting those which Congress has prevented from becoming fulfilled. He has proven that he is the president of every American who wishes to live in a nation built upon economic prowess, national security, respect and care of our nation's veterans, rebuilding the military, a new adventure in space, undertaking the tasks of going after child abusers, sex-traffickers and violent gangs, and raising up religions and pray. His accomplishments have been numerous and yet he has been given NO credit by the liberal left and the deep state, and, of course, the "fake news," leftist media, many of whom try to infuse the liberal ideology into the minds of viewers and readers. There are a selected few, thankfully, who actually support the president and his accomplishments and are quite proud to print them or speak to them. The last four years of the Trump presidency has been riddled relentlessly by demonic intervention, so much so that this president deserves re-election and along with it the chance to expose and bring to justice many of his accusers.

Enter Joe Biden. That this "criminal" has the audacity to run for president is not only alarming, it is a threat to our nation. The man is clearly not of sound mind. Anyone who thinks so is less sound of mind, and those who have, literally, voted and endorsed this man without question, are, clearly, part of a plan formulated by the deep state in one more attempt to bring down this president. They have tried via impeachment, followed by a viral pandemic that had almost annihilated our nation, and this followed by pre-planned rioting and insurgency catapulted off the backs of peaceful protestors following the heinous murder in cold blood of George Floyd, an unarmed black man. The deep state agenda to lose Trump is backfiring and their anger is showing in every desperate measure to appear innocent of the charge. So, now, we have Joe Biden to deal with, the liberal democrat who is supposed to be able to outrun and win over the sitting president who has done an awesome job despite all of the criticism and threats. Joe Biden, a man who had his time and his time is over. His thought-process no longer flows as it should and he is a sad reflection of that which once was and is no more. The deep state plan couldn't be more obvious here because Joe Biden is NOT fit to run this country, and every American damn well knows it! The same Joe Biden whose political views from the past have been both liberal, un-educated, and racist. The criminal Joe Biden who, along with the former president, Obama, successfully ousted a Ukrainian prosecutor for the now-famous dealings of Hunter Biden, son of Joe. Not only did they rid of the prosecutor in an unlawful manner, Joe bragged about it! His bragging is well-documented by the media and on tape. The touchy-feely Joe Biden who has a nasty habit of groping women and children, has had more public indiscretions than any former president's (barring Ronald Reagan) secret escapades, and yet those on the left who voted for this man as a presidential candidate, see absolutely nothing wrong with Biden's deviate behavior! NOTHING! A clear, direct message is being sent to our children and grandchildren, and that is; that you have nothing to worry about when you grow up because you can do anything you please, to anyone you desire, however you choose, and get away with it since there are no rules or regulations, no justice or law and order. This is the America we, and our descendants, will live in if Joe Biden and those like him, move into the White House. STOP IT NOW! President Trump is busy cleaning house so good-bye Joe Biden and his cronies and their dirty laundry.

Any involvement Joe Biden may, or may not, have had in attempts to kidnap young John F. Kennedy, Jr. remain unsubstantiated, however, the following article produced in the Los Angeles Times in 2000, reveal the FBI's information on three different kidnapping attempts.

"FROM ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON —

In his 38 years of life, John F. Kennedy Jr. was the target of at least three kidnapping threats--the latest just four years before he died in a plane crash, according to FBI records released Monday.

The first one, confirmed by the U.S. government, occurred more than two decades ago when Kennedy was still in elementary school. The 162 newly released records, which Associated Press obtained through a Freedom of Information Act request, contain sketchy details about two more threats.

In 1995, someone called the FBI in New York offering information about an alleged plot to kidnap Kennedy in New York City, according to an FBI report dated July 13, 1995. The caller told the FBI that the alleged kidnappers "had determined that Kennedy rode a bicycle in Manhattan and did not have any bodyguards," the report says.

The phrase "armed and dangerous" was typed on several of the FBI documents about the plot. But the individual told the FBI "that he never heard any statements from any of the suspects that suggested they would harm Kennedy," the report says.

Few details about the suspects, who were believed to have some connection to Colombia, could be gleaned from the pages, which were heavily redacted, or blackened out, before their release.

"The security firm that handles security for the Kennedys has been apprised of the potential threat to John F. Kennedy Jr.," one report says. "A representative from the firm advised that Kennedy would be notified."

FBI bureaus in Florida and California were also advised of the alleged kidnapping scheme.

The Washington office of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) was contacted but would not comment on the release of FBI records.

The documents reveal a second kidnapping threat on May 14, 1985, two years after Kennedy graduated from Brown University.

The Herndon, Va., Police Department received a call from an apparently intoxicated white male who told them that "he and seven other individuals intended on kidnapping John Kennedy that evening at 8 p.m."

"You know Massachusetts?" the man added before he abruptly hung up.

The other kidnapping threat occurred in the 1970s.

The U.S. government announced on July 15, 1972, the arrests of eight Greeks on various charges, including allegedly plotting to kidnap Kennedy, who was in elementary school at the time. He was to be abducted while visiting the Greek island of Skorpios, which was owned by his stepfather, Aristotle Onassis, a shipping tycoon.

The FBI records were replete with fuzzy details about the two kidnapping plots. But one report concerned a letter, postmarked Aug. 26, 1994, that Sen. Joseph R. Biden Jr. (D-Del.), received from Worcester, Mass.

"Dear Sen. Biden," the letter said. "You are a traitor."

It was signed "John F. Kennedy Jr."

The handwriting was analyzed. Fingerprints were lifted from the letter. But no suspects were identified, and the case was closed at the end of 1994."

It has been noted that Kennedy, Jr. had a temper. But did he have a temper enough to pen a threatening note to Joe Biden, then a Democrat Senator, and if he did pen the note, why and what unlawful deed could have caused Kennedy to do so? Why was Biden's name brought up at all? A copy of the partial letter which is in the FBI files, does not show the actual threat, here left out.

What is very certain is that John F. Kennedy, Jr. had every intention of exposing and bringing to justice the murderers of his father. He seemed to have known who these people were, and may have been working behind the scenes to gather information and proofs. Could he have found information linking Biden to his own attempted kidnappings? Did he even write the letter?

The mystery deepens. I do believe that it is time for all innocent Democrats to turn Republican. Just as Donald Trump was a democrat before he was a Republican, just as Ronald Reagan was a Democrat before he was a Republican, I believe that both John F. Kennedy, Sr. and John F. Kennedy, Jr. would, today, be considered conservative Democrats or even Republicans. Too bad Kennedy family members have endorsed Joe Biden for president. Can they not see what is going on here?
