Since when is it an impeachable offense for doing one's duty as President of the United States? Since the New party democrats took over the House.

When we look at the accomplishments made by President Donald J. Trump during his first term in office, thus far, we see many promises kept to the American people, especially the regard this president has and has shown for our military and our veterans. We see the economy booming, the employment rates dive to their lowest points in decades; we see determined and mindful attention to the opioid crisis; we see a wall being built; we see that our nation's veterans are able to see any doctor outside of the VA; we see patients who have been given their last turn to live the "Right to Try." The list is extensive, the success rate overwhelming. President Trump IS doing his duty for the American people.

However, the liberal left standing for socialism see the President as a threat. After all, Donald Trump is not a politician. He is not your average president as far as demeanor and professionalism as it goes with dignitaries. He speaks his mind. He calls out those who need calling out. He is not fearful or pained by the relentless, vicious attacks occurring daily since he took office. Instead, he has grown stronger and more determined to keep his word to US!

He has brought more companies and jobs back to America! He has taken care of our nation's farmers. He has met with world leaders who many prior presidents have never met. He has brought God back to the White House and in public where He rightfully belongs. He has spoken up for the majority and for religious freedom, including raising up Christians and Jews. He has established the US Embassy in Jerusalem, recognizing it as the Capitol of Israel, as it should be. The list goes on. And yet, the new democrats and their followers despise this man and want to impeach him simply because THEY DON'T LIKE HIM!

Do Americans truly believe that President Trump did something wrong, committing an impeachable offense on July 25, 2019? No we do not! What we see, and what is actually the obligation and responsibility of the President of the United States, is a president who saw and understood the corruption in Ukraine and questioned such, deciding to hold back monies already approved by Congress until it became clear that Ukraine, under their new president, would not continue with its corrupt policies and actions. During that process, this president who was aware of certain nefarious activities including the possible corrupt behavior of a former vice president of the United States, asked the new president of Ukraine to look into these matters with regard to the effort that both are conducting to quell corruption in Ukraine. BUT, the new democrat party and its proponents on the Intelligence Committee headed by Rep. Adam Schiff (D-CA) sought to rack up as many impeachable offenses against this president as able to insure that he would be impeached, simply because THEY DO NOT LIKE DONALD TRUMP.

It should be noted here that many of these democrats who want Trump gone were once his friends; partied with him, played golf with him, and borrowed money from him. He holds their deepest secrets, and the secrets floundering in the murky Washington swamp, and they fear him! They fear he will uncover the truth, which yet may still come to pass very soon.

It should also be noted that the Democrats persistent push for impeachment over the Ukraine phone call lends further curiosity to the matter of their careful guarding of Ukraine. And why? For starters, we have the sons of a vice president, a senator, a former Secretary of State, and Speaker of the House, all of who hold positions in Ukrainian companies. Of course, the Clintons, no doubt, have connections to Ukraine also. It goes much deeper than this and is worth a thorough investigation which actually began with President Trump's phone call and needs to go full circle in order to reveal the true reasons behind the calls for President Donald J. Trump to be impeached. Absurd! Unconstitutional allegations! America, the president needs your support! He is being openly and senselessly attacked as are we! Stand up for God and country to keep America free, a world leader of democracy, and safe! KEEP AMERICA GREAT!
